

MONSTER VINEYARDS™

Monster Vineyards is a boutique winery located on the Naramata Bench in the British Columbia's Okanagan Valley. The winery came to life in 2006 when the owners of Poplar Grove introduced this fun new line up of wines to the British Columbia market. Raising the bar for fruit-forward Okanagan wines, the Monster wines are fresh, fruity and ready to be set free upon release.

Monster Vineyards is conveniently located at the gateway to the famous Naramata Bench wine touring route just down the road from Poplar Grove Winery. Stefan Arnason, Winemaker for both Poplar Grove and Monster Vineyards, enjoys freedom of creative expression playing with new grape varietals and winemaking techniques. The grapes chosen for Monster Vineyards wines are from Holler Estate Vineyards and, when opportunity strikes, a few other quality vineyards within the Okanagan Valley. Monster Vineyards currently produces an annual average of 5000 cases. Monster wines can be spotted and captured in fine restaurants and specialty retail stores throughout British Columbia and Alberta.
