ABOUT THIS WINERY

Francis Ford Coppola was first exposed to winemaking while growing up in New York; his grandfather and uncles were making wine in their basement using grapes they shipped in from California. After marrying in 1962, Francis and his wife Eleanor became the owners of a substantial and beautiful wine estate outside of San Francisco. They have now been married for over 50 years and still live on the estate with their family.

TASTING NOTES

A vibrant, luscious California Merlot. Dark, succulent fruit is balanced by the wine's natural acidity. Powerful aromas of raspberry and blueberry lead to a soft, smooth structure with flavors of plum, red raspberry, crushed berries, vanilla and leather.

WINEMAKING NOTES

Classic California expression offering fruit-forward, complex flavor and immediate drinkability. To achieve this style of Merlot with structure, complexity, and soft, smooth tannins, Winemaker Corey Beck blends fruit from several different appellations. Paso Robles gives sweet, fresh fruit qualities, spice and earthy character; Sonoma fruit provides natural acidity for balance and finesse; and Monterey County gives richness and concentration.
